DISCLOSEABLE TRANSACTION – FACTORING CONTRACT

FACTORING CONTRACT

The Board hereby announces that on 11 January 2018, Yueda Commercial Factoring, an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, entered into a factoring business contract with domestic recourse (the “Factoring Contract”) with Dixun, pursuant to which Yueda Commercial Factoring agreed to provide accounts receivables financing, accounts receivable management services and accounts receivable collection services (the “Accounts Receivable Services”) to Dixun.

LISTING RULES IMPLICATIONS

As the highest applicable percentage ratio for the Company as calculated under Rule 14.07 of the Listing Rules in relation to the factoring loan credit amounts for the Account Receivables Services provided to Dixun exceeds 5% but is less than 25%, the entering into of the Factoring Contract constitutes a discloseable transaction of the Company under the Listing Rules and is subject to the reporting and announcement requirements under Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules.

FACTORING BUSINESS CONTRACT WITH DOMESTIC RECOURSE

The Board hereby announces that on 11 January 2018, Yueda Commercial Factoring, an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, entered into a factoring business contract with domestic recourse (the “Factoring Contract”) with Dixun, pursuant to which Yueda Commercial Factoring agreed to provide accounts receivables financing, accounts receivable management services and accounts receivable collection services (the “Accounts Receivable Services”) to Dixun. Pursuant to the Factoring Contract, if Dixun needs financing facility from Yueda Commercial Factoring, it will make an application for factoring services and Yueda Commercial Factoring will make a credit assessment to determine a credit limit. If the credit assessment is to the satisfaction of Yueda Commercial Factoring, Yueda Commercial Factoring will issue to Dixun account receivables management consent which delineates the credit limit, interest rate per annum, the administration fee and the expiry date of the credit limit.

ACCOUNT RECEIVABLES MANAGEMENT CONSENT

On 11 January 2018, Yueda Commercial Factoring entered into the Factoring Contract with Dixun, and issued to Dixun the Account Receivables Management Consent on the same date, pursuant to which Yueda Commercial Factoring granted a factoring loan credit limit of RMB20,000,000 (equivalent to approximately HK$24,000,000) to Dixun.

The principal terms of the factoring loan under i) the Factoring Contract; and ii) the Account Receivables Management Consent are substantially similar and are set out below:

Date	:	11 January 2018
Parties	:	For Dixun:
		(1) Dixun, a company established in the PRC with limited liability and is principally engaged in the research and development, manufacture and maintenance of satellite communication equipment; related software development; production and sales of audio-visual equipment, monitor and tablet. To the best knowledge, information and belief of the Directors having made all reasonable enquiries, Dixun and its ultimate beneficial owner are Independent Third Parties.
		(2) Yueda Commercial Factoring, an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of the Company which principal business is, among other things, commercial factoring.
Credit limit	:	RMB20,000,000 (equivalent to approximately HK$24,000,000)
Interest rate per annum	:	6.2%
Factoring administration fees	:	3.8% per annum
Guarantor	:	Dafeng Harbour and Wang Jing Zhi and her spouse
Expiry date of the factoring facilities	:	11 July 2018

The interest rate of the Factoring Contract is determined by the parties through arm's length negotiation taking into account: i) the credit rating of Dixun and the debtors of the accounts receivables provided by Dixun; ii) the credit period; iii) the factoring is with recourse; and iv) the factoring loan is guaranteed.

Dafeng Harbour and Wang Jing Zhi directly owns Dixun at the percentages of 55% and 45%, respectively.

REASONS FOR THE FACTORING CONTRACT

The Group is principally engaged in exploration, mining and processing of metal ores in the PRC. On 15 August 2017, it successfully registered Yueda Commercial Factoring, a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, to develop through it the commercial factoring business as the principal business of the Group in future. The Directors consider that the Factoring Contract was entered into on normal commercial terms and in the ordinary and usual course of business of the Group.

Given that the Factoring Contract is being conducted in the ordinary and usual course of business of Yueda Commercial Factoring, which will contribute profit to the Company over the financing term, is under normal commercial terms, and is beneficial to the Group in its business expansion and establishment of long term business relationship with Dixun, the Directors are of the view that the terms of and the Factoring Contract is fair and reasonable and are in the interests of the Company and Shareholders as a whole.

LISTING RULES IMPLICATIONS

As the highest applicable percentage ratio for the Company as calculated under Rule 14.07 of the Listing Rules in relation to the factoring loan credit amounts for the Account Receivables Services provided to Dixun exceeds 5% but is less than 25%, the entering into of the Factoring Contract constitutes a discloseable transaction for the Company under the Listing Rules and is subject to the reporting and announcement requirements under Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules.
